We serve three rural areas classified as “food deserts” meaning there is not access to nutritious, affordable food within a mile of where most residents live, and access is limited to mostly convenience stores. These towns include: Byron, Knightsen, and Bethel Island.

What does our food pantry mean for our clients?

1. Access to meat, produce, and other pantry staples not always available nearby.
2. By receiving food they have more money in their pocket to spend on:
  - Rent, to keep them from being homeless.
  - Utilities, so they can stay warm in the winter and cooler in the summer, take a warm bath, and wash clothes.
  - Basic healthcare needs that we take for granted like soap, shampoo, deodorant, toothbrush and toothpaste, lotion, and medicines.
  - Gas for their vehicle, so they can get to a job or appointments and stores beyond their local neighborhood.
  - Phone services, so they can stay connected to others.
  - And more!

THANK YOU FOR MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF SO MANY PEOPLE!
